

Your Medical Reimbursement Account

If you work in San Francisco and do not qualify for the Healthy San Francisco program, your employer may deposit funds in the Medical Reimbursement Account (MRA) on your behalf.

The MRA pays you back for out-of-pocket medical expenses.

For more information visit

www.healthysanfrancisco.org/employees

Medical Reimbursement Account (MRA) funds are for repayment of your out-of-pocket medical expenses, such as:

- Doctor Visits
- Prescription and Over-the Counter Medications
- Prescription Glasses
- Dental Services
- Contact Lenses
- Mental Health Services
- Physical Therapy
- And More

If your employer has established an MRA account on your behalf, you will receive notification in the mail about how to activate your account. Follow the activation instructions immediately to begin accessing your MRA funds.

If you have not yet activated your MRA or want more information or assistance, call (415) 615-4588 or visit

www.healthysanfrancisco.org/employees

If you have already activated your MRA account, you can access benefits by calling (866) 697-6078 or visit

www.spendingaccount.shps.com